

Commission on Improving the Status of Children in Indiana

Committee: EICC

Date: 04/12/21

Summary of Recent Progress: EICC is in the beginning stage of having conversations about ways to determine if the tools and resources previously shared by the group are (1) being shared and utilized and (2) having an impact. This will be part of a larger conversation with other workgroups and taskforces of the Commission. The EICC continues to work on a few other resources that will be made available to the commission in the coming months, included additional examples of how to use the Guide for Equity Consideration that was made available in 2019.

Anticipated Date for Presenting Completed Deliverables or Recommendations to the Commission: At this time, we do not have a specific timeframe in mind.
